Key Facts Statement (KFS) Covered Cards

Profit Calculation rates on credit balances	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 25 to 55 days from the Covered Card Transaction date (subject to payment in full of the Total Amount Due by the Payment Due Date), with an exception if the previous month's balance has not been cleared in full or if a Cash Advance or any other product has been availed that is excluded from the profit-free period. All purchase transactions are free of profit from the transaction date of each transaction until the statement date and subsequently to the payment due date for that billing cycle. If there is any outstanding balance of unpaid transactions following the payment due date, then profit will be charged on the daily closing balance from the date of each transaction. This will appear in the next statement. Profit is charged on the cash advance from the date of cash advance to the date the cash advance has been settled in full. Profit rate & fees are applicable as per schedule of fees and charges published on the website. Example: To ensure this is easy to understand and calculate, this assumes no further purchases or payments made on the card, other than what is shown below:

The above profit rate calculation is for illustration purposes, hence values shown are not actuals. The actual profit rate applicable to customers can be checked on the Covered Card statement. The Covered Card monthly statement is sent to the customer's e-mail ID registered with the bank. A revolver will become a transactor upon paying the total amount due as per the statement. Profit will still be charged from the date of the last statement generation until the actual repayment date. This profit will show up in the subsequent Covered Card statement.
Warnings	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> In case the customer pays the minimum due, profit is charged on the daily closing balance from the date of each transaction. Should the Customer choose not to settle the Total Outstanding on or before the Payment Due Date, continue to pay the Minimum Payment Due, and not make any new transaction on their Al Masraf Covered Credit Card, it would take the Customer more than 38 months to fully settle the Total Outstanding, including the profit and applicable Charges. If the Customer does not meet the repayments on his/her Covered Credit Card, the Customer's Account will go into arrears and incur applicable Charges. This may affect the Customer's credit rating, which may limit the Customer's ability to access financing in the future. Al Masraf does not charge profit on accrued profit. It's important to keep your access tools safe, such as your Debit card, PINs, T-PINs, Cheques, Online/Mobile Banking usernames, passwords, and other personal information. Responsibility for their safekeeping rests with you, as the Bank cannot be held accountable for any security breaches on your end. Remember, the Central Bank of the UAE or Al Masraf Bank will never contact you via call, SMS, mail, or email to request your confidential details or other sensitive information related to your bank accounts. Sharing such information with anyone can result in financial fraud. Additionally, be cautious of phishing emails that prompt you to click on links and change your bank account password. There is no conflict of interest between you and the bank in providing this product to you.
